

Equestrian Liability Proposal Form: Horse Transporters

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to an insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose these matters to an insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be insured;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that the insurer knows or in the ordinary course of their business they ought to know;
- that the insurer indicates to you that they do not want to know.

Your duty of disclosure continues after this proposal form has been completed up until the contract of insurance is entered into.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the policy in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Change of circumstances

You should advise your insurer as soon as practicable of any material change to the organisation insured and any of its subsidiaries and controlled entities as disclosed in this proposal form.

Please ensure you have read the Product Disclosure Statement before making a decision about this insurance.
